

Wine of the Moment

Château Haut Lagrange, Pessac-Léognan, 2018      $128 per bottle U.P: $148

Dark colour, expressive blackcurrant nose, subtle and smooth tannins, rich balanced wine with nice ripe fruits

Château La Tour de Mons, Margaux 2016      $148 per bottle U.P: $168

Medium-bodied, floral, fresh, bright & leafy with crisp red berries, soft tannins & earthy bright finish

Les Pagodes de Cos, Saint-Estèphe 2014      $158 per bottle U.P: $178

Medium-bodied, silky, refined, fresh with soft polish tannins & a lingering finish with dusty cocoa, hint of spice & ripe sweet cherries

Château Gloria, Saint-Julien, 2017      $178 per bottle U.P: $208

Medium-bodied, medium to deep garnet-purple colour with nose of blackcurrants, blackberries, plum & cedar. Earthy with herb hints, soft & easy-breezy

Château Lynch-Moussas, Pauillac 2015      $178 per bottle U.P: $208

Fruity bouquet of raspberries & wild strawberries with woody notes. Full body, smooth tannins & long spicy finish
